

Robert Cray, No Big Deal

Everybody likes those folding bills
And you might need those little white pills
Fast little cars give some people chills
But I need my baby to get my thrills
Yeah, I need my baby to get my thrills

Ohh, I'm just wild about Mexican food
Ohh, and you might think you're a real bad dude
You might need a drink to come unglued
But I've got to have my baby when I'm in the mood
Oh, I've got to have my baby when I'm in the mood

(Guitar solo)

And Lizzy likes to hear the saxophone
Terri likes the guitar tone
Shawny, she wants a dancing song, yeah
But I'd rather hear my baby when she moans
Ohh, I'd rather hear my baby when she moans

Now I know you know just how I feel
Going in circles don't make your will
If I lose my baby or miss a meal
I'll get me another, ain't no big deal
I said I'll get me another, ain't no big deal

No big deal
Ain't no big deal

Owwwwww!
(Some very strange noises by Young Bob!)
