

Robert Cray, There's Nothing Wrong

I've got to move on
I think a change will do me better
There's nothing wrong
We finally agree

I gave you my heart
Got nothing in return
You tore it apart, yeah
Cause you want to be free

So I'm gonna wait till tomorrow
See the morning light
Forget about our problems
Forget about last night
And I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
Till love comes round again

I'm gonna go on
I've just got to forget her
There's nothing wrong
That's how it's got to be

You never gave your heart, baby
Took a while to learn
I need a brand-new start
So I can be me

And I'm gonna wait till tomorrow
And see the morning light
Forget about our problems
Forget about last night
And I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
Till love comes round again

(Funky guitar solo)

Oh, I'm gonna wait till tomorrow
And see the morning light
Forget about our problems
Forget about last night
And I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait
Till love comes round again

I've got to move on
I know a change will do me better
There's nothing wrong
We finally agree

I gave you my heart, baby
Got nothing in return
You tore it all apart
Cause you want to be free

And I'm gonna wait till tomorrow
And see the morning light
Forget about our problems

And I'll wait, I'll wait, I'll wait

And I'm gonna wait, and wait

Till love comes round again

Mmmmmmm

I'm gonna wait

For love to come back

Someday, baby

Someday

There's nothing wrong, no, no

Nothing wrong, baby
