

Robert Pattinson, To Roam

Well I like this world, well I like this world
Well I like this world
I would watch
Pray I would [work]
Like I would watch
Ghost and the rain
[Cold], the freedom
And I'm walkin the hallway
Yeah I'm walkin the hallway
I'm walking the hallway
Said I'm walking the hallway, and I'm walking the hallway
I am grown, I am [grown]
Think of the day where I'm sure to come
When I'm seen, I'm smiling [of ages]
When I know where I'm going to run
When I know where I will go
I will be gone somewhere else
You could see, you could see it through my mind
Know, you'd know it
You'd know when my eyes roam
Through the fog and hail, a scene [I missed]
Nowhere, nowhere, nowhere, should know where Should know where, should know where
Should know where, should know where baby
Cause I like this world, and I like this world yeah
Some people were born to roam
Some people they roam this world alone
Some people were born to roam
Some people they roam this world alone
Louder, louder
