Robert Plant, One More Cup Of Coffee

(Bob Dylan)

Your breath is sweet
Your eyes are like two jewels in the sky.
Your back is straight, your hair is smooth
On the pillow where you lie.
I don't sense affection
No gratitude or love
Your loyalty is not to me
But to the stars above.

One more cup of coffee for the road, One more cup of coffee fore I go To the valley below.

Your daddy he's an outlaw
And a wanderer by trade
He'll teach you how to pick and choose
And how to throw the blade.
He oversees his kingdom
So no stranger dare intrude
His voice it trembles as he calls
For another plate of food.

One more cup of coffee for the road, One more cup of coffee 'fore I go To the valley below.

Your sister sees the future Like your mama and yourself. You've never learned to read or write There's no books upon your shelf. Your pleasure knows no limits Your voice is like a lark But your heart is like an ocean Mysterious and dark.

One more cup of coffee for the road, One more cup of coffee 'fore I go To the valley below.
