

Robert Plant, The Greatest Gift

Everything I do, yes I do for my love
Every place I go, she is on my mind
I would give the world, my soul, to discover
Send me just a sign, angel on my mind

And if I should dream, I could dream of no other
Out here in the deep, hear my body crying
Heaven knows the fire that I hide under cover
Glorify this fool, angel on my mind, on my mind

This is the greatest gift that I can bring to you
I feel the world that moves inside
This is the moment I have dreamt of all my life
Reach out and touch, and you will find

Why am I crazy, who is fooling with the order
I am strong - I will not fade - I will survive
Look in my eyes, you'll see my heart - I will recover
Send me just a sign, angel on my mind, on my mind

This is the greatest gift [etc repeated]
