

Robert Plant, Upside Down

Upside down

Cross my armored sword
And see what I can see
My king is at the kitchen
Sayin' the queen is on a leave

I am wishful lady
The reason is a whole
Far somewhere in the east fighting in the war

And the world's upside down
The world's upside down
The world's upside down
The world has turned upside down

Burning our lives and ruining Mother Chant
Plays with that in mind, hanging from a cross
Oranges and lemons going for the sun
Fifty million elders facing desperately wrong

And the world's upside down, down
The world's upside down
The world's upside down, down, down
The world has turned upside down

The world's upside down
The world's upside down
The world's upside down
The world has turned upside down

Upside down, inside up
Upside down, inside up, all the way round
Upside down, inside up
Upside down, inside up, all the way round

The world's upside down, oh oh yeah
The world's upside down
The world's upside down
The world has turned upside down

The world's upside down
The world's upside down
The world's upside down
The world has turned upside down

The world's upside down
The world's upside down
The world's upside down
The world has turned upside down
