

Robert Wyatt, Chairman Mao

An early photograph of the young braid with the confident grin who is celebrating his first defeat by clouching a haircut from his skull the pig tail
in death of modern man like a young braid with a price on his head Delilahs and Samsons stands the accused the symbol is clear cut from his skull
the long hair
if this is the missing link the threaded locks getting down to remain unable to avoid the sacrifice the short back and side the closest shave
the pig tail
remember how it's done first you must think and then you began seemingly retreating the coiling spring is triggered to leave father ahead the long march
