

Robi Rosa, Junkie

lady love, are you sad today, come and sway with me over here sorry sunlight jaded forever, I dont like it cold in the summer no need for the wasteland of the pain anymore my hands, embrace the air, every time i look at you one last chance and we can burn the morrow, one last chance before tomorrow i dont care where we go i dont care what we do doesn't matter who we are cause all we have is the broken calm of the sea it's time to let things go it's time to just be free junkie, come on now junkie id like to find a way to kill the pain for you junkie, you are the cry of pain i know that someday love and death will make you new lady love, arose horizon, while we've been gone she holds my hand i just want to mourn this forever, wanna sleep in love wherever no need for the wasteland of the wounded sea one last chance and we will burn the sorrow one last chance before tomorrow
