

Robin Gibb, Wish You Were Here

Yeah, Yeah...

You're livibg your life
In somebody else's heart
I'm hurting so deep
As oceans are far apart
I never let you down
You were my world
You kept it turning.

They were good times
And i wish you were here
Yes i wish you were here tonight
They were good times
I wish you were here tonight, tomorrow.

So iawake in somebody else's dream
Its only a life, I've yet to decide who's real
You were my universe
You were the flmae that kept on burning.

They were good times
And i wish you were here
Yes i wish you were here tonight
They were good times
I wish you were here tonight, tomorrow.

And right or wrong
We were so strong together
You were the only one i lived for
You were the one i lived for.

They were good times
And i wish you were here
Yes i wish you were here tonight
They were good times
I wish you were here tonight, tomorrow.

And i'm missing you
And i'm missing you
And i'm missing you tonight.

You were the flame
That kept on burning
Ando no one knows
That i can't live without you
They wereregood times
When we were toghether
You were the love
You're all that i live for.
