

Rockell, First Kiss

Live your life of many colors, show me something more kick start my heart in your soft hands, show me love its so unusual but its surely the will of the world we are mightier than this, its just, my first kiss

I'm buttoned up with unconventional, show me what lies underneath I'm giving up on this surfacive life show me more of your loving peace

its so unusual but its surely the will of the world
we are mightier than this, its just, my first kiss

Enlisted in me I taste your fruited lips, and to you I lose my heart but it takes more than these elusive looks to see who we really are

its so unusual but its surely the will of the world
