

Rod Steward, Maggie May

Wake up Maggie

I think I got something to say to you;
it's late September and I really should be back at school.
I know I keep you amused
but I feel I'm being used

Maggie

I couldn't have tried anymore.
You lured me away from home
just to save you from being alone.
You stole my heart and that's what really hurts.
The morning sun
when it's in your face
really shows your age

but that don't worry me none
in my eyes you're ev'rything.
I laughed at all of your jokes
my love you didn't need to coax

Maggie

I couldn't have tried anymore.
You lured me away from home
just to save you from being alone.
You stole my soule
that's a pain I can do without.
All I needed was a friend to lend a guiding hand

but you turned into a lover and Mother
what a lover !
You wore me out.
All you did was wreck my bed
and in the morning kick me in the head

Maggie

I couldn't have tried anymore.
You lured me away from home
'cause you didn't want to be alone.
You stole my heart
I couldn't leave you if I tried.
I suppose I could collect my books and get back to school.
Or steal my daddy's cue and make a living out of playing pool.
Or find myself a rock and roll band that needs a helpin' hand.

Maggie

I wish I'd never seen your face.
You lured me away from home
just to save you from being alone.
You stole my heart and that's what really hurts.
The morning sun
when it's in your face
really shows your age

but that don't worry me none
in my eyes you're ev'rything.
I laughed at all of your jokes
my love you didn't need to coax

Maggie

I couldn't have tried any face

you made a first-class fool out of me but I'm as blind as a fool can be you stole my heart but I love you anyway.

Maggie

I wish I'd never seen your face.

I'll get on back home one of these days.
