

Rod Steward, Somebody Special

How can you say life is getting Lou down?
Get yourself out
go along with the crowd.
You're all dressed up got nowhere to go

You feel left out 'cos nobody showed. - Listen
Babe:
And when you think you're the only one Who can't find love in this world

Tell yourself there's another one Who's waiting for you - somewhere.

Somebody special is thinking of you

Somebody special is dreaming of you.
Somebody special is longing for you

Somebody special special.

Magazine dreams are easy stuff

But heaven knows they ain't good enough

Picture yourself from reel to reel

And get your hands on that driving wheel.
When it's hard to satisfy a simple simple fantasy

Somebody somewhere is on your side - Waiting for you crying.

Somebody special is looking for you

Somebody special is searching for you

Somebody special is waiting for you

Somebody special
somebody special.

Maybe your heart's tormenting you

Why should it have any reason to?
Wipe off that negativity put on some positivity.
And when you think you're the only one . . .

Somebody special is dreaming for you

Somebody special is looking for you

Somebody special is waiting for you

Somebody special somebody special.
