Rod Stewart, Girl From The North Country

(Bob Dylan)

If you're traveling in the north country fair Where the winds hit heavy on the borderline Remember me to the one who lives there She was once a true love of mine

And if you're goin' when the snowflakes storm When the rivers freeze and summer ends Please see for me she has a coat so warm to keep her from the howling wind

Would you see for me that her hair's hanging long That it rolls and flows all down her breasts See for me that her hair's hanging long 'Cause that's the way I remember her best

But I'm a-wondering if she remembers me at all Many times I've often prayed in the darkness of my night in the brightness of my day So if you're traveling in the north country fair Where the winds hit heavy on the borderline Remember me to the one who lives there 'Cause she was once, she was once a true love of mine

And she'll always be a true love of mine And I never, never, never, never give her up