

Rod Stewart, Let Me Love You

(j. rod)

Over here!
Let me love you baby,
You're drivin' my poor heart crazy.
Let me love you baby,
You're drivin' my poor heart crazy.
When I'm with you woman,
My whole life seems so hazy.

Ah, don't you know that.
[jeff] baby when you walk, you shake just like a willow tree.
Ah, yes you do darling,
Every time I see ya' oh!
[jeff] baby when you walk you know what, you shake just like a willow tree.
No, I know, I know, I know.
[jeff] oo-eee baby, you sure look so good to me.

Come on babe ... yes I know ... yeah

Baby when you walk,

You shake like a willow tree.
(you oughta know that by now)
Baby when you walk,
You shake like a willow tree.
And oo-eee baby, you sure look so good to me.

(easy with this one)
Let me love you baby, love you baby
No, I know, I know.
Let me love you baby,
Ah you, let me love you ... what you got.
Let me love you baby, love you baby
Any old way you choose it,
I don't mind what time you call me,
Ah, ah, yeah
You're drivin' my poor heart crazy
Let me love you baby, love you baby,
Early in the morning time,
Later in the evening,
Let me love you baby,
You're drivin' my poor heart [breath]... crazy.
