Rod Stewart, So Far Away

(Carole King)

So far away
Doesn't anybody stay in one place anymore
It will be so fine to see your face at my door
And it doesn't help to know that your just time away
Long ago I reached for you and there you stood Holding you again could only do me good Oh how I wish I could but you're so far away

One more song about moving along the highway I can't say much of anything that's new But if I could only work this life out my way I'd rather spend it being close to you but you're so far away Doesn't anybody stay in one place anymore It will be so fine to see your face at my door And it doesn't help to know you're so far away So far away, yeah you're so far away

Traveling around sure get's me down and lonely Nothing else to do but close my mind And I sure hope the road don't get to own me There's so many dreams that I've yet to find But you're so far away Doesn't anybody stay in one place anymore It will be so fine to see your face at my door And it doesn't help to know you're so far away, you're so far away You're so far away, you're so far away Oh I need to get in touch with ya baby You're so very, very, very far away You're so, so far away
