

Rod Stewart, Tell Everyone

(ronnie lane)

May the smile on your face
Come straight from your heart
Takes a lady like you
To write that for me

To wake up with you
Makes my morning so bright
Wipes the sleep from my eyes
When you tell me your dreams

And it goes on and on
Way beyond and out of reach
It's a well known old secret
Go and tell everyone
Tell everyone

The smile on your face
Comes straight from your heart
If you look you will find
And you wrote that for me

Ooh-hoo-hoo
