Roger Hodgson, Land Ho

Please don't turn me away Please don't leave me alone Oh I'm not asking for paradise I've just got to find me a home

I said, Land Ho, will I be sailing forever Oh-oh, I gotta find some shelter from the cold Land Ho, will I be searching forever Oh-oh, I gotta find an anchor for my soul

Well you may think I'm a fool And think I'm running away But I've had enough of the city lights Oh I've got no reason to stay

I said, Land Ho, will I be sailing forever Oh-oh, I need some wind to help meto my goal Land Ho, will I be searching forever Oh-oh, I gotta find an anchor for my soul

When you're alone, there's not a sail in sight Oh it's cold and dark And there's no one there to see you through the night There once was a lady made me feel alright But she couldn't stay so one lonely day She just sailed away and took away my life

Maybe I'll always be sad Maybe there'll always be strife Drifting alone with a saddened tone Afloat on the ocean of life

I said, Land Ho, will I be sailing forever Oh-oh, sometimes I feel my ship is getting old Land Ho, will I be dreaming forever Oh-oh I gotta find an anchor for my soul

Will I be sailing forever...
