

Roger Taylor, Is It Me Or Is It You?

(Roger Taylor)

So lonely,
I'm so lonely, is it me?
Or is it you?
And I feel
And I feel
And I feel
So lonely
Only lonely
Without you
How many times must I sit by the phone
Must I feel so alone, must I stay in at home
I feel lonely

How many times can we patch up a fight,
Can we stay home at night, try to keep out of sight
I feel blue

How many times mn we drive ourselves mad
End up just feeling sad with a love turning bad
I'm so lonely
Only lonely
Without you

And I feel
And I feel
And I feel
So lonely
I'm so lonely
Is it me?
Or is it you?

And I feel
And I feel
And I feel
So lonely
Only lonely
Without you

How many tears must we cry in the night
Must we needlessly fight
Can't see no light
There's no hope left

How many pleas does it take to appease
When you're down an your knees
Seems that nothing can please
So hopeless

How many storms can the two of us take
When there's so much at stake
Something must break
No rope left
A hopeless home left
Without you

And I feel
And I feel
And I feel
So lonely
So lonely
Is it me
Or is it you?
