

Roger Taylor, SUNNY DAY

in a heartbeat I realized, saw through your disguise.
How could anybody be so beautiful?
Stopped in my tracks with a big-time shock,
My captured heart just would not stop.
How could anybody feel so wonderful?
You walk down the street, your hips sway. yeah
cars crash, traffic stops, i have to look away
where you are in the world (its a sunny day)
its a sunny day (its a beautiful wonderful day)
oh yeah
shout from the rooftops, tell the town,
The sun is up, lets fool around.
How could anybody be so beautiful?
the Skys the limit with you by my side,
Together we could learn to fly.
How could anybody feel so wonderful?
You walk down the street, your hips sway. yeah
cars crash, traffic stops, i have to look away
where you are in the world (its a sunny day)
its a sunny day (its a beautiful wonderful day)
oh yeah
In a heartbeat yeah
ohh i knew
how could anybody be
so wonderful
in a heartbeat
one look and i knew
how could anybody feel so beautiful?
yeah
