Roger Taylor, Working Class Hero

(John Lennon)

As soon as you're born they make you feel small By giving you no time instead of at all Until the pain is so big you feel nothing at all A working class hero is something to be A working class hero is something to be Well they hurt you at home and they hit you at school They hate you if you're clever and they despise a fool 'Till you're so fucking crazy you can't follow their rules A working class hero is something to be A working class hero is something to be

When they've tortured and scared you for twenty odd years Then they expect you to pick a career When you can't really function you're so full of fear A working class hero is something to be A working class hero is something to be

Keep you doped with religion and sex and TV And you think you're so clever and classless and free But you're still fucking peasants as far as I can see A working class hero is something to be A working class hero is something to be

There's room at the top they are telling you still But first you must learn to smile as you kill If you want to be like the folks on the hill A working class hero is something to be Yes a working class hero is something to be

If you want to be a hero then just follow me If you want to be a hero then just follow me
