

Roger Taylor, You Had To Be There

(Roger Taylor)

The sweetest moments
That I ever had
The most magic memories
That I recall
(when the man came out
And complained in the hall)
When I met you
When I met you
'you had to be there'

The darkest hour
That I ever lived
And the longest fall
That I ever fell

And the sun went in
And the night was hell
When you left me
'you had to be there'

The sweetest thoughts
That I entertain
Are of happy days
That might come again

I don't know your face
I don't know your name
'til we meet again.....
Hope we meet again
'you have to be there'
