

Roisin Murphy, Blow by blow

cant forgive and
I cant forget
Its never simple that way
Too proud to let you know
Oh know I wish it was so
It frightens me to say
Why dont I let somebody new
Take me home
Lately I feel so alone
Somebody new would make it easier
For me to let you go
Oh no
So be it
Let it be so
Its better this way baby
Well you can take me down
What a way to go
Blow by blow
Its how it always happens
In the throws of passion
Is it any wonder
Its no wonder at all
Just to live a lifetime
In the space of a lifetime
Well its the hardest thing to do
But therell be nothing after you
Blow by blow
Kill me slow
Blow by blow
Hey hey hey...
You didnt mean those things you said
You didnt mean those things
