

Ron Sexsmith, Honest Mistake

Sometimes in anger we seem to forget
All the wrongs that have been done to us
We've done to others and regret
Pull back
You'll see the picture that much clearer

Anyone, anyone can make an honest mistake
Anyone, anyone can make an honest mistake

To err is human and all you can do
Is to tell it to your wounded heart
Forgiveness is human too
Go back
Accept each other for who we are

Anyone, anyone can make an honest mistake
Anyone, anyone can make an honest mistake

Few can admit it when they're wrong, I know
Few can forgive and then move on, I know it's hard

...An honest mistake
Anyone, anyone can make an honest mistake

Sometimes in anger we seem to forget
All the wrongs that have been to us
We've done to others and regret
