

Ron Sexsmith, Raindrops In My Coffee

Raindrops in my coffee
What's a boy to do
To make the clouds disappear?
What's a boy to do to make it clear?
Raindrops or tears
Rolling down my cheek?
Teardrops on the sidewalk
What's it gonna take to make the sun shine again?
What's a boy to do to ease the pain?
Teardrops or rain
Rolling down my cheek?
Good times come
And then they go
They're off somewhere
But I can't follow
I see them disappear around the bend
And I'm standing in the rain again
Raindrops in my coffee
What's a boy to do
To make the clouds disappear?
What's a boy to do to make it clear?
Raindrops or tears
Rolling down my cheek?
Raindrops in my coffee
