

Ronnie Milsap, Snap Your Fingers

Snap your fingers
I'll come runnin'
Back to you
On bended knee
Snap your fingers
I'll come runnin'
I'll be true
Take a chance on me.

Let your light turn green
Baby, I've gotta know
Give me some kind of clue
Should I stay-ay or go
Let me love you like the lover
That you used to know
Turn the key and let me in
Through that same old door.

Oh, I had it, but I lost it
Now I've got a broken heart to mend
But I don't care what the cost is
I've got to find my way back in.

So you just snap your fingers
Baby, I-I-I'll come runnin'
I'll do anything
To get back again.

Oh, I had it (I had it)
Oh, but I've lost it (I lost it)
Now I've got a broken heart to mend (heart to mend)
Baby listen, I don't care what the cost is
I've got to find my way back in.

So you just snap your fingers
And baby I'll come runnin'
I'll do anything
To get back again, yeah!...
