

Rookie Of The Year, Something Incredible

And this could be something incredible.
Or not worth my time.
Or not worth your time.
And this clock has been going around for days.
Without seeing your face.
Your star won't fade.
Please don't be afraid.
Want to come home and stay awhile with you.
Want to come home and stay awhile with me.
And this song will not get out of my head.
The song that you said.
Would be ours forever.
While lying in bed.
If we don't speak.
You know when we'll meet.
Every night at three.
Just you and me.
You're not here.
You disappeared.
You're not there.
You didn't believe.
Stars aren't on our side.
Can't change them if we tried.
Can't change them if we tried.
I wish we could take the time.
Ask ourselves why.
I wish we could take the time.
And give this another try
