

Rooney, Hey

Hey (x5)

Well, I know we've never had anything before
Just me outside your door
And I know following you around the world doesn't help
It makes me seem helpless

I think I'm seeing things differently

Hey (x3)
I want out
There's no end
I want in
Let's begin
Like we have never began before
That's me knocking at your door
Yes, that's me knocking at your door

If you pretend all those messages I left
Were from some other guy who has my name
Then I'll pretend I never saw those Creed CDs
Sitting in your car

I think, I think, I think I'm seeing things differently

Hey (x3)
I want out
There's no end
I want in
Let's begin
Like we have never began before
That's me knocking at your door
Yes, that's me knocking at your

I know we've never had anything before
Just me outside your door
And I know following you around the world doesn't help
It makes me seem helpless

Hey (x4)
I want out
There's no end
I want in
Let's begin

Like we have never began before (x3)
That's me knocking at your
Me knocking at your
Me knocking at your door
