

Rooney, Manzana

You think you know a lot about
The things that are going on
You think you've made the right decisions
For walking away
Well, you're wrong
You won the race but lost the case
Will you ever stop fighting me?
You're wrong and I'm right
Well, you're not coming back
Even if you did you'd change your mind
You're not keeping the tempo anymore
'Cause you couldn't leave her behind
No, we're not responsible for the mistakes you've made
You won the race but lost the case
Will you ever stop fighting me?
