

Rosey, Beautiful

if I had all of the cameras in the world could I be sure that I would be beautiful in that frame of mind when I...
I wanna be beautiful, like I was then every day when you loved me and why should I care, when I left you years ago you were ugly then, but now you're so beautiful in this frame of mind when I...

I wanna be beautiful, in somebody's eyes like it was when you loved, you loved me you loved me so, never let go, of me...

and why should I think things any different it's always the same, how can I blame you? when I'm in this frame of mind when I...
I wanna feel beautiful, deep inside like it was when you loved, you were loving me

I'm tired and so lazy, it's been so long on my own I'm so tired, lackadaisical, I don't like to be alone

I want to be sweet, want to be powerful empty and free from all the things that keep me in this frame of mind when I...
I wanna be beautiful all the time then no one can take that, take that from me I wanna be beautiful all the time then no one will take that, take that from me oh so beautiful, I know I will be and no one can take that, take that from me
