

Rosicrucian, Back In The Habit

Within your mind your brain injury has been transmitted and it's multiplying piece by piece You share your pain by giving death as your hatred against society increase A weak law government society in which crime pays Slay a man and become a convict for a day
The organized criminality walks free as our laws decay
But scums like you will have their punishment
Death penalty in the public opinion
But with psychiatric care you're learn to conform
Mental disturbance since the birth is no excuse for taking lives of the unborn
The lust to kill an irresistible temptation
a sickness without any cure
We've got to root it out with death condemnations
No salvation cause god doesn't exist
Be held responsible for your deeds
No more victims for your greed
We're demanding your death - or else you'll be Back in the habit, habit again
Death penalty in the public opinion
But with psychiatric care you're learn to conform
Mental disturbance since the birth is no excuse
for taking lives of the unborn
The lust to kill an irresistible temptation
a sickness without any cure
We've got to root it out with death condemnations
No salvation cause god doesn't exist
Be held responsible for your deeds
No more victims for your greed
We're demanding your death - or else you'll be
Back in the habit, habit again
Schizophrenia is no excuse, for acting like you do
To slay is your only need, it's disgusting to breath the same air as you do - you to Your sanguinary delinquency mus have its final end
You deserve death penalty
How can you call yourself human - you're just shit to me
Be held responsible for your deeds
No more victims for your greed
We're demanding your death - or else you'll be
Back in the habit, habit again
