

Roxette, It Hurts

Can you tell me where it leads
When it's never ending
Can you tell me where to go
When noones home

And I know, you know
It hurts, it hurts to be alone
You're on your own
On a oneway train going down

Can you tell me what to say
When there's noone listening
Can you show me what to do
When all is done

Oh I know, you know
It hurts, it hurts to be alone
The plan has go wrong
Like a runaway train going down

Oh, going down down down
Going down
Going down down down

Yes I know, you know
It hurts, it hurts to be alone
You're on, on your own
On a one way train going down
Going down
Going down down down
