

Roy Drusky, Minute Of Your Time

For you to think of me it would only take a minute of your time
To spare one thought for me would you miss just one minute of your time
When you are far away I'd like to be part of your time each day so think of me
One minute of your time is all that takes to bring us close when we are far apart
And if I'm on your mind I know that there's a chance you'll find
I'm right there in your heart
One minute every day may help you keep to walk away
Until that moment you are back to stay
But still I'd like to think you think of me every minute of your time
One minute of your time is all that takes to bring us close...
