

Roy Orbison, House Without Windows

(Pockris/Tobias)

I'm gonna move into
A house without windows
So I won't see you walking by, walking by
With your new love

There in the darkness of
My house without windows
I will never see the stars that shine
Shine on you, and your new love

I'd rather wonder through this endless night
Than to face the light of another lonely day
Knowing that you won't be there
There to share, these two arms ever again

I'll take all my broken dreams
And I'll take my broken heart
And from now on you will find me there
Crying there, trying to forget
In my house without windows
In my house without windows
And without love.
