

Roy Orbison, You're Gonna Cry

You wink your eye at every guy
Don't you know you're gonna cry
You say hello to every Joe
You're gonna know, I told you so
You're everybody's baby, everybody's knockin' on your door
But then one day, they're gonna say
That you're nobody's baby no more
Ah-ah, you'll cry when they say bye-bye
Ah-ah, you're gonna cry
Then dry your eyes, and quit your cryin'
And be nobody's baby but mine
