

Royal Hunt, Day Is Dawning

Once I had a Dream
Like a voice in the distance Call out from the night asking me for the answer

Somewhere in the dark is a place without dying peace the eternal peace that we see it is waiting

Truth show me your face and who you are I can't be dreaming on I'm wide awake open the door
Day is dawning now
