

Royksopp, Beautiful Day Without You

Living under guard
Wind is on my neck
Sun is on my face
A beautiful day without you
Like reason go

...

How can I
Forget the pain
Living under guard
Wind is on my neck
Sun is on my face
A beautiful day without you
Feeling spoiled
In this world
Fighting believes
How can I

I..

Know..

My..

Tragedy

Notion took about

Still I wonder how

Warming after rain

Here await the pain

Then after all

I know I've gone

It's plenty

Just who we are

In light of hate

The way we talk

And acting shame

Causeing harm

Defend yourself

And keep your guard

We realize

We belong apart

'Cause we entise

We've got ways of knowing

Living under guard

Wind is on my neck

Sun is on my face

A beautiful day without you

like reason of gold

...

How can I
Forget the pain
Living under guard
Wind is on my neck
Sun is on my face
A beautiful day without you
Feeling spoiled in this world
fighting believes

How can I...

When I'm alone

I know I go

I paid in leaves

to the sun

In light of god

I see myself

movieing things

every day

The open sky

The breathing stars

'Cause in these times

That's no way of knowing
Living under guard
Wind is on my neck
Sun is on my face
A beautiful day without you
