

Rubber Puppy, Zero

You know you can never kill him,
He's been around for way too long,
He's thinking 'bout taking you up on You're offer to beat him down but,
I don't suggest you try.

He's got no name but they call him Zero,
'Cause that's the number who have returned,
From trying to challenge the monster,
He gives them a chance to leave but.
Always ends their life.

They call him Zero.
