

Ruff Michael, You Walk Away

trust no one
don't smile to soon
that's just your way so easy you reach for love much harder not to push it away everybody gets hurt sometimes this I know (this I know)
you walk away
you leave before the dance is over
don't run away
the best is yet to come, you walk away yes you do... for the good times
no memory kind words, they go out your other so easy, you pack and go you'd leave me, before I can hurt you but everybody gets hurt sometimes
this I know (this I know)
you walk away
don't run away
everybody gets hurt sometimes
you walk away
don't run away
don't run away
you play the fool when you walk away
