

Rufio, Road To Recovery

He never thought someone would come along,
and show him the feelings he's always dreamed of.
She didn't plan on falling in love,
upset the balance she's wanted so long.

This road to recovery,
has taken all i have.
It seems hard as i try,
to succumb once again, again.

Well he lost control and gave up his heart,
to follow the girl that he's always dreamed of.
She pulled away so scared of a love,
that might have been more than she had planned on.

This road to recovery,
has taken all i have.
It seems hard as i try,
to succumb once again, again.

Well love's a bitch,
relationships end.
What happens now when that person's gone?
The one who you thought you could always count on.
You fall in love and they fall out.
Love is a bitch, all relationships end.

How do i let go of a love that meant so much to me?
How do i go on when you're part of me?
I'm dying inside each time i see you.
Don't lose sight of me cuz you're all I see.
You're still all I see.
This road to recovery has taken all I have.
This road to recovery has taken all I have, taken all I have.
