

Rufio, She Cries

gone again, she said heading for the longest road one too many times hes beaten you down to the bone.
so you sail away into the unknown
stay away, he said
don't ever come back home.
cry away her days that last so long
all alone
she stays away
stay away

weakened from the pain that he left inside your heart fallen in the rain, your whole life has fallen apart.
so you sail away
into the unknown
stay away, he said
dont ever come back home.
cry away
her days that last so long
all alone
she stays away
alone she cries, lose that hate inside
no love, no life
without that loser who once said here's your kiss goodbye.

see this is real, she doesn't feel lonely hearts
shattered dreams.
there's nothing better in this place nothing but memories in your mind sail away, into the unknown
stay away he said
your days that last so long all alone you sailed away

alone
she cries
lose that hate inside
no love, no life
without that loser who once said here's your kiss goodbye
alone she cries
here's your kiss goodbye
