Rufus Wainwright, Beauty Mark

I never had it, I never wanted it, I never had your Beauty mark Nor did I have your black hair and hazel eyes My early childhood was not as simple as yours set in the country No I did not have a fears of nuns who dressed in black But I do have your tastes I had no radio show, nor did I have Home-made clothes, home-made curtains Of the same material I never had it, I never wanted it, I never had your Beauty Mark But I do have your tastes And I do have your red face and long hands I think Callas sang a lovely "Norma" You prefer Robson on " Deep River" I may not be so manly, but still I know you love me Even if I don't have your Beauty Mark
