

Run Level Zero, Short Cuts

Hands trembling / rusting veins
Feverish dreams / I see myself from above
Bitter cold / frozen tears
All love / brings fear
We had nothing / we had nothing to fear
The world was silent / a whisper, load rc.heaven
Skies burning / still keep your dreams alive
Civilized, pixelized / tumbling down, hitting rock
Smashed down / hammered down
It'll heal / it'll never heal

Shine shimmer autumn day / a broken steel wing
Structures folding / it will never it will never be ok

Nothing here is for real
Nothing here is for real and that's a great relief to me

All things are lies to me / get high and you will see
It's the the missing key / to understand it all

And the empty fame / from a written name
You see / all the pictures
Made to look the same

A lingering presence / memories' essence
Strangled cries / hands tied
It's your last time / never did it but now it's done

It was love that I felt for you
It was love, not hate, that is true

Soothing darkness / open eyes
The room expanding / to its infinite size
Let it go, let it be / break your shackles now
And live free

A ladder shaped from dreams / all smoke or so it seems
An arch made of marble flesh / its architecture blindingly perfect
A smell and taste ever so fresh / brings me to the surface
Me and myself / blind for everything else
