

Runga Bic, Delight

Anytime that you fall asleep
I'm wide awake
Anytime that you leave your house
I'm waiting at the gate
I'm not angry any more
Come on and show your soul
I'd love hang it on the wall
Framed for me
Anytime that you smile
I know that's really you
Anytime that you laugh you know that
I'll be laughing too
But it's not funny any more
Come on now where's your soul
Is that it crumpled on the floor
Is this blame on me
Delight Delight Delight Delight
Delight at least we know it's name
Delight Delight Delight
Wouldn't that be nice to feel again
Delight Delight Delight
It's locked outside it won't be coming in Anytime now you'll talk at least I hope you will
Anytime now you'll speak and you know
I'll be listening still
But we don't say much any more
Come on tell it from your soul
Delight Delight Delight Delight
Delight at least we know it's name
Delight Delight Delight
Wouldn't that be nice to feel again
Delight Delight Delight
It's locked outside it won't be coming in
It won't be coming in
Delight Delight
It's locked outside tonight it won't be coming in
