

Russ Ballard, I Cant Hear You No More

First you break it up, but I knew you'd come running
You'd wanna make it up, I can't hear you no more

Now you know what it's like, and I can watch you begging
Like I was begging to you, like I did before

I can't hear you no more, I can't hear you no more, I won't come running again
I can't hear you no more, no it ain't like before, I'm learning to live again

Ain't I the one who called, when you stood so near me
You didn't hear me then, I can't hear you no more

Now you know what it's like, and I can watch you begging
Like I was begging to you, like I did before

I can't hear you no more, I can't hear you no more, I won't come running again
I can't hear you no more, no it ain't like before
I'm learning to live, learning to live, learning to live again

For too long you played a part, now it's lost the mystery
But no more can I hold on, I'm breaking the chains that tie me, yeah

(Solo)

I can't hear you no more, no it ain't like before
See me walk out the door, I can't hear you no more

I can't hear you no more, I can't hear you no more
I won't come running, I won't come running, I won't come running again

I can't hear you no more, no it ain't like before
See me walk out the door, I can't hear you no more
(repeats out)

When you stood so near me, you couldn't even hear me - that's all I should say
