

Rusted Root, Rising Sun

I know you don't like it butcha
Feeling like the rising sun
On the holy holy road
Out there on that line

I know I dreamt of you
But I'm starting to unwind Cause I'm in transit here I'm coming out to that line

Elevate my life, my prayer
I'm a gonna
demonstrate this love
And when I get down
in this love affair
I'm a gonna
demonstrate this love

It was such a long day
And it ended about an hour ago
I got us some milkshakes Now let's head off
and see the show
I know you don't like it butcha
Feeling like the rising sun
With many more miles to go
Many more miles to go.

Ele-elevate my life
my prayer
I'm a gonna
demonstrate this love
And when I get down
in this love affair
I'm a gonna
demonstrate this love

The devil's been tailgating me
From the dark side of town
But he's just a little guy Can hardly see over the dashboard - he says
I know you don't like it butcha
Feeling like the rising sun
With many more miles to go
Many more miles to go

All in a day
You got yours and I got mine
But they don't care to see That our love is a fortune bright

Ele-elevate my life
my prayer
I'm a gonna
demonstrate this love
And when I get down
