

Ruth Ann, Believe In Me

Do you feel empty, do you feel whole
Is it too late to open your soul
Open up your soul
Catch the wind to fly above
Beyond the sadness, into the love
Can we find our love

It's not the end of anything
Do you shelter me
This is the start of everything
Believe in me

Here me call, hear me say
Hear my voice, don't be afraid
Don't be afraid
Catch the wind to fly above
Beyond the sadness, into the love
Can we find our love

It's not the end of anything
Do you shelter me
This is the start of everything
Believe in me

It's not the end of anything
Do you shelter me
This is the start of everything
Believe in me
