

Ryan Adams, I'm Coming Over

I'm coming over, darling
Don't leave the doors unlocked
I'm coming over, doll
It's something you can't stop
Nobody taught you how to cry
Well you won't even have to try

The house is on the hill
And all the lights are on
I'm coming over, doll
I'm coming all undone
Nobody taught you how to cry
Nobody taught you how to cry
Nobody taught you how to cry
You won't even have to try
It's something you don't have to stop
It's something you don't have to stop
