

Ryan Adams, Luxury

Someplace in a picture of you
Is the person you want to become
Dying at the movies alone

You're just dying for nothing but bullets from nobody's guns
Fame and glory kills
Fame and glory
Just don't forget all the love you gave
Is the love for free
And love don't come from fame or glory
It's luxury
It's luxury
It's luxury
It's luxury
I believe in singular fate
Believe in the crosswords waiting for words
I believe in trying my luck
'Cause my luck is [???]; it refuses to evolve
Fame & glory kills
Fame & glory
Just don't forget all the love you gave
Is the love for free
And love don't come from fame or glory
It's a luxury
It's a luxury
It's a luxury
It's a luxury
It's a luxury
Fame & glory kills
Fame & glory
Just don't forget all the love you gave
Is the love for free
And love don't come from fame or glory
It's a luxury
It's a luxury
It's a luxury
It's a luxury
It's a luxury
