

Ryan Adams, Yesterday's News

well traveling to the point that i can't stop it get so familiar never get enough talk about it all the time just drop it damage on your pretty little eyes says it all i can't stand to be under your wing i can't fly or sink or swim it's a lot like falling down standing up, and i'm falling down fill my cup til i understand wait a minute, see the pieces don't fit this time well, yesterday's news is what i have been reading see you at the comet and i end up needing know if you were thinking it could have been it was nothing it's cause nothing's what you did

well i can't stand to be under your wing
i'm standing up, falling down fill my cup til i understand
wait a minute, see the pieces don't fit this time
