

Ryan Pugal, Miss You So Much Don't Know Why

Miss you so much, don't know why

You left me all alone today when you said goodbye I got your 7 pm message on my celly
And started to cry never thought that you would leave & now your gone from me & baby
(Chorus)

I miss you so much baby & I don't know why cause when we are together all we do is fight

I need you right here with me... (repeat)

I need you I want you ijust wanna feel you near me so wont you please my baby com back to me...

I miss you so much baby & I don't know why cause when we are together all we do is fight

I need you right here right now right next to me I miss you so much baby and

I don't know why cause when we are together all we do is fight I need you right here with me

Oh baby I promise you that we can work it out like that

I'll light the candles & make dinner for two anything you want boo

I can do for you... so don't you know this is my song/my babys
